

Worksheet on the chapter THE THIRD LEVEL

Dear students don't take the questions lightly as they are from previous year's board papers only. Do it in your H.W. notebook.

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Who is the protagonist of the story The Third Level?
a) Charley b) Sam c) Jack Finney d) The psychiatrist
2. What does Charley discover at Grand Central Station?
a) A hidden treasure b) The Third Level c) A time machine d) A secret tunnel
3. What year does the Third Level supposedly transport people to?
a) 1894 b) 1947 c) 2000 d) 1865
4. Why does Charley's psychiatrist dismiss his experience of the Third Level?
a) He believes Charley is lying. b) He thinks Charley is unhappy and hallucinating.
c) He has never heard of the Third Level. d) He believes Charley is seeking attention.
5. What does Charley plan to do after discovering the Third Level?
a) Write a book about it b) Buy tickets to Galesburg, Illinois, in 1894
c) Tell his psychiatrist about it d) Warn others about the dangers of time travel

Subjective Questions (40-50 words)

6. How does Sam's letter act as a catalyst in the story? What does it imply about human longing for an ideal world?
7. The Third Level explores the idea of escapism. Discuss how the story presents this theme through Charley's actions and beliefs.
8. What role does psychology play in the story? How does Charley's conversation with his psychiatrist shape his perspective on life?
9. Compare and contrast the real world and the imaginary world as described in The Third Level. How does Jack Finney use these settings to comment on human nature?
10. What does Galesburg, Illinois, symbolize for Charley? Discuss its significance in the context of the story.